Dear John,

Jhave you and your faiends
here at westy to thank for a wonder feel year here with you. It has really been fun to have you in the German class even if you most of the times have been absent. I think that you are a very mice boy and a great spectler and footboll player. I wish you all the luck I can in your feeller

DAWN

by Paul Dungar

An angel, robed in spotless white,

Bent down and kissed the sleeping Night.

Night woke to blush; the sprite was gone.

Men saw the blush and called it Dawn.

Westminster High School was built by people who wanted and needed a high school in the community to be proud of. The 1967 "Warrior" shows that their dream has been fulfilled. In activities, sports and all-aroundschool life, our high school has attained leadership. Westy is truly the light in the community they were searching for.

Westy Sparkles With Spirit

It is true that students make the school, but the students need a place to meet. The buildings of Westminster High suit that purpose perfectly. Rarely is the school empty, quiet or dark. It is a symbol of confidence. People look at Westminster High and are instilled with a feeling of confidence. They see the buildings and are reassured that something is being done to train the leaders of the future.

The teachers at Westy are truly unselfish people. They sacrifice higher paying jobs, time and effort to help mold students into worth-while people. Often we find the faculty receiving little or no credit for all their devotion. It is fitting that the 1967 "Warrior" should now thank the faculty for being a guiding light at Westy.

Mr. Critchfield came to Westy this year and brought with him a new enthusiasm. Not only was school spirit rekindled and brought to an all time high in '66-'67 but academic accomplishments were up also. The "Warrior" is proud to welcome Mr. Critchfield. Our hope is that he will stay at Westy in future years to carry-on the fine tradition he has begun.

THE KITCHEN MAIDS

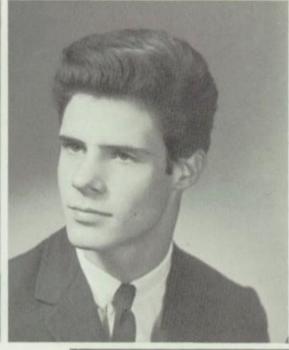

The heart of any school is in the students. Only they can make the school respected in the community and envied by other schools. This is the guiding light and the aim the classes of Westy strive for. In academic and extracurricular fields someone from Westy is always trying.

Sold your didn't ward with Your griend Greener It is easy to see that school without activities would be worse than dull. Activities brighten a school year with chances to build lasting memories. Perhaps a dance or play will stand out as one of the memories of Westy you treasure most. However, you will remember that there was always some activity taking place, planned for Westy students to enjoy.

Homecoming 1966 was all that any student could have desired. Long nights were put in all week by all the classes in an effort to assemble a prize-winning float. Homecoming officially began with the Powder Puff Football Game between the junior and senior girls. This was won by the juniors. Seniors won first place with their float and the Warriors won their football game against the Mapleton Falcons with a stunning score of 19-0. Spirit and pride had never run higher than on that night. The final touch of a great Homecoming was the dance, "Moonlight Carousel."

Macbeth

"Rebel Without a Cause" was Westy's Jr. - Sr. class play for 1966. December 12 and 13 found the practiced cast giving their two long awaited evening performances. "Rebel" itself was a serious criticism of juvenile problems. It went over well with Westy's audience of young adults.

Dramatic productions such as "Rebel" can be held up as a guiding light for other theatrical productions at Westy.

Westminster High has always had a well-rounded roster of clubs and organizations. There are so many choices that any student should be able to find a club that interests him. Clubs are a chance to find fellowship with friends and sponsors, because they offer a chance for self-expression. Organizations are truly sparkling stars in the Westy galaxy.

ORGANIZATIONS

HEAD GIRL: TARESA DALLA BETTA

ALL SCHOOL SECRETARY: Terri Polson

ALL SCHOOL TREASURER: Sue Adams

Think of the student body as a Knight in shining armor. The head being the Administration and faculty, the arms representing the clubs at Westy, and the legs acting as the Student Council.

If the head is wise, it will give guidance, wisdom, and authority to the body. The active arms will add to the lively mood of the body, but does not move the body as a whole. However, if the legs are constantly moving, the whole body is on the go. Student Council is the legs of Westminster High, it keeps Westy "on the go,"

This year's annual was produced through the combined efforts of Journalism I and the regular annual staff. Its creation took many hours of planning, writing, and arranging. Innovations such as duotone, larger pictures, and more candids were added to make this year's annual one of the best.

Pep Club Puts Sparkle Into Games

Juniors shine at games.

Pep Club, under the leadership of Miss McCall, has been generated with new enthusiasm this year. Pep Club has put a spark in the overall spirit of the school and helped cheer the teams on to victory. The varied activites of Pep Club this yearhave included marching in the Homecoming Parade, sponsoring an athletic dinner, and working diligently on posters for our halls to promote school spirit. New vests and jackets added a zesty touch to the older uniforms. Pep Club was truly a necessary part of our school spirit.

Seniors brighten our side.

The THUNDERBIRD is a non-profit project. It solicits no advertising. It must depend entirely on sales. The THUNDERBIRD has been published annually in May. It is a magazine composed of the students' creative work in writing, music, and art. The staff welcomes contributions from all classes or any individuals in Westminster High School, but the real work is carried on in special English classes. Editor: Mike Miller, Co-Editor: Kathy McCusker, Treas: S. Kronberg, Pub. Man.: I. Montoya, Bus. Man.: U. Simon, Art Ed.: G. Forney, Sponsor: Mrs. Rogers.

Culture is the keynote of the activities of one of the most dynamic clubs in school. Members are constantly on the move, attending live plays, ballets, concerts, and art shows around town. They let no medium escape their attention as they read books of interest and quality, gather for parties, listen to records or watch a play on television. Lively discusions are a vital ingredient of these parties. Pres: Ed Castillo, Treas: D. Cioeta, Sponsor: Mrs. Henry.

The competitive atmosphere of the NFL enables high school students to express themselves in all aspects of public speaking. Speech teams have brought recognition to Westminster in debate; discussion; extemporaneous speaking; dramatic and humorous interpretation; poetry; and original and interpretation of oratory. Westy's speech squad has participated in meets in Colorado and traveled to Wyoming to attend the Rocky Mountain Student Congress. Colorado University was the location for the State Meet on March 17 & 18. On March 30-April 1, an eight-man team attended the NFL meet at Colorado State College in Greeley.

The Constitution of the Car Club states that the club is formulated to promote sportsmanship in driving. Not only is this goal met but also the members are given the opportunity to get together to work on cars. For Homecoming the Car Club contributed one of the best floats in the parade. The halls of Westy were trimmed by the Christmas-spirited members during the Yuletide season. Other activities included movies of various races and a car bash. The Car Club hopes to continue growth in coming years.

Majorettes Sparkle

The high-stepping routines of our majorettes add sparkling glamour to all Westy half-times. Their performances clearly mirror school spirit in the excitement of their marching with the band. Majorettes have to be talented baton twirlers and masters of timing. Their skill and excellence is partly due to their constant practice under the watchful eye of our band director, Mr. Smith. We owe thanks to these hard-working girls who really flare up the torch of spirit at Westy.

There is only one thing that can light a sportsman's eyes and that is victory. They literally live on it. That is why the sportsmen of Westy were so healthy in '66-'67. Yet, in their few losses, our sportsmen took the defeat gracefully.

This year will go down as one that the proud tradition of victory at Westy was brought into focus.

When spirit shines brightly at Westy you can be sure that five girls help to spark it. These, of course, are the blue-and-white-suited Westy cheerleaders.

Their lusty yelling at games spurs the crowd to join in victory chants. All five are talented in acrobatic stunts which they preform in precision unison.

Without these girls, spirit at Westy could easily be deflated. We have them, however, and they light up the proud traditions of a school that likes to win.

Never Give Up The Pool . . .

Warrior finmen tried valiantly to place their team in the winning column. Under the coaching of Mr. Clark, the Warriors proved that, even without their own pool, desire, effort and teamwork could pit a fine team against opponents with their own pools.

Westy swimmers went against J. F. Kennedy, Adams City, Loveland, Thomas Jefferson, Ranum, Araphoe, Air Academy, Loveland West and participated in the Skyline Meet.

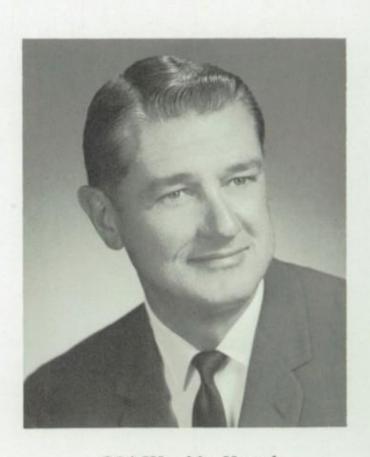

Hampered by a shortage of swimmers, the finmen point with pride to their effort. Among our swimmers are; Phil Brides, Rich Chalmers, Steve Clendenon, Rick Greener, Bob Jolly, Mike McGinn, Rick McGinn, Dave Philbrook, Gy Poland, Chuck Polson, Doug Roberts, Mike Ruiz, Tom Thoms, and Gary Young.

This year at Westy saw a big boom in the Girl's Athletic Association. This club was revitalized by the new sponsor, Miss McCall.

G.A.A.'s purpose is to develop athletic and physical efficiency, sportsmanship and school spirit in the young women of Westy. This is accomplished when the girls participate in intramural activities and competition with other high schools.

Their main activities are in soccer, volleyball, basketball, tennis, archery, track and gymnastics. Westy is especially proud of the femme gymnasts who are bound to make a good showing in state competition.

Girls Are Sports, Too

Girls' sports at Westminster High School fullfill the needs of the students by offering both intramural, competition between Westminster students, and extramurals, which is competition with other schools. Offered at Westy are basketball, modern dance, volleyball, soccer, gymnastics, tennis, bowling, archery, track, tumbling, physical fitness testing, all under the supervision of Miss McCall, physical education instructor.

MODERN DANCE

"An Evening of Dance" was presented Dec. 7 by the Girl's Physical Education classes. Modern Dance is an art form using the body as a means of expression.

"Not that way, Robin."

"No, No, No!! The basket's over there."

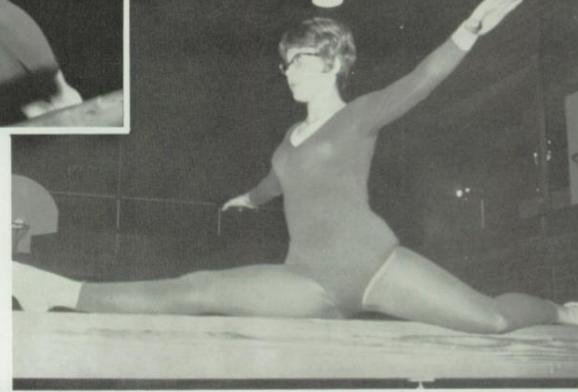

"Look, Ma, no hands!!"

The Gymnastics Team

"My dog's bigger than your dog..."

The girls' gymnastics teams practices from October to April with the state meet being the final event. Westminster High School sponsored the Colorado State High School Girls' Gymnastics Meet this year. The girls compete against other schools in dual meets as well as entering the state-wide meets.
